

Kennedy Seeks Soviet Stand on Berlin Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko arrived in Washington for Berlin crisis talks with President Kennedy today, saying the danger of war over the explosive dispute "must be prevented."

Gromyko declined to say whether he has brought a new proposal from Soviet Premier Khrushchev. Asked whether there was danger of war over Berlin, Gromyko paused, then emphasized: "One thing must be said—the danger must be prevented."

Gromyko was interviewed by newsmen as he stepped from his train upon arriving from New York where he has been attending U.N. sessions.

The Russian foreign affairs leader declared the Soviets want to see a peaceful settlement of the German problem, which is now the toughest major issue between East and West.

But U.S. officials did not expect the session, set for late afternoon at the White House, to provide a dramatic opening for peaceful settlement of the long-festering German dispute.

Kennedy is prepared to listen to any fresh instructions Gromyko may have received from Moscow and to prod the Soviet minister for further explanation of the Soviet position on Berlin.

Kennedy also was ready to re-emphasize to Gromyko Western determination not to yield on Berlin rights—a message Gromyko will likely relay to Soviet Premier Khrushchev when Gromyko returns to Moscow Sunday.

Another matter that may come up in their conversation is the United Nations. The Soviet Union and the United States were reported Thursday night to be in agreement on a candidate for temporary U.N. secretary-general, a successor for the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

The candidate reported by informed diplomats to be acceptable by both Moscow and Washington is U Thant of Burma.

Kennedy plans only a single session with Gromyko. The President's schedule allowed for a meeting of about two hours before he was due at a state dinner being given by visiting President Ferik Ibrahim Aboud of Sudan.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will sit in at the conference. It follows three exploratory talks Rusk held with Gromyko in New York.

No plans have been made for another separate Rusk-Gromyko meeting. Officials stressed, however, that this depends entirely on Gromyko. If he wants one, the State Department is ready to go along.

The objects of these sessions is to find out if the Soviets are willing to negotiate on terms acceptable to the West.

U.S. sources said Gromyko has not yet spelled out the Kremlin position sufficiently to enable the Western powers to decide whether fruitful East-West negotiations are possible. For one thing, the Soviets have not been precise on how their proposed peace treaty with Communist East Germany would affect West Berlin rights which the West deems vital.

American authorities will scan closely Khrushchev's forthcoming policy speech to the Communist party congress, which opens in Moscow Oct. 17. They believe he might shed some light in the speech on any change in Soviet policy toward Berlin and Germany.

Declares State Could Save Millions on Super Highway by Using Bids, Asphalt

Silver Dollar Day at Stamps

STAMPS, Ark. (AP) — The Gaines, Inc., furniture plant paid its 80 employees in silver dollars today to emphasize the effect of the firm's $10,000 bi-weekly payroll on the city's economy.

Retail merchants co-operated by offering merchandise at reduced prices for silver dollars. The Stamps Chamber of Commerce promoted the silver dollar day. Gaines has been at Stamps 10 years. The firm makes upholstered furniture.

Only two per cent of the state's interstate mileage has been surfaced with asphalt since the program was authorized in 1956, he said. He said heavy-duty bituminous pavement averages about $2 per square yard less than concrete.

Other Southern state uses asphalt on the Interstate highway system of highways as "Arkansas," he said.

Worm, a University of Arkansas alum who began his career with the Arkansas Highway Department, said this could cost the state extra millions in road-building funds.

Outing out the $2-a-yard differential between asphalt and concrete amounted to $50,000 a four-lane mile, he said the state could save an estimated $14 million by surfacing half of its 518-mile Interstate system with asphalt.

Officers Told to Talk Only of Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has decreed that military speakers at private seminars must stick to military subjects, avoid partisan expressions and must not challenge established policy.

McNamara drew these and other boundaries Thursday for military participation in seminars and other information programs sponsored by nongovernmental groups.

He left with local commanders the responsibility for determining whether military personnel, equipment and facilities should be allowed to take part in such activities.

But he specified that no military organization may sponsor or co-sponsor such programs unless he or a service secretary expressly approves.

Pentagon sources said the rules, filling out what have been general policies, are intended to dispel any doubts or confusion in the minds of local commanders.

McNamara circulated the memorandum at the top level of the Pentagon as a Senate subcommittee was preparing to open an inquiry, perhaps next month, into Defense Department policies in this field.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., has argued that the Pentagon has been stopping officers from espousing anti-Communist views in speeches and lectures.

Other senators have complained that some military officers have been involved in seminars leaning toward the far right.

Take Ride in a Pony Cart

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Within 45 minutes after Mrs. John F. Kennedy arrived from Washington by plane Thursday she had 3½-year-old Caroline and 10-month-old John Jr. out for a ride in the pony cart.

President Kennedy was expected to join the family for the weekend.

The First Lady flew from Washington to Newport by helicopter to resume her vacation.

Swede Heads East-West Atomic Group

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Swedish nuclear scientist, Dr. Sigvard Eklund, was inaugurated as director-general of the East-West International Atomic Energy Agency today. The Soviet chief delegate, Vasily Emelyanov, walked out in protest after a sharply worded attack on Eklund and the Western powers.

The remainder of the Soviet delegation stayed in the hall. Emelyanov, in a statement immediately before Dr. Eklund was sworn in, declared the election would have "very negative consequences for the agency." He added that Eklund "will not enjoy the support of the Socialist countries as IAEA director-general."

Time Running Out on Speaker Sam Rayburn

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Time appears to be running out for Sam Rayburn.

The 79-year-old speaker of the House of Representatives has cancer and it has spread to such an extent that doctors said Thursday "no further surgery is anticipated."

In Washington, President Kennedy asked the nation to join him and Mrs. Kennedy "in prayer for Speaker Rayburn, who has served his nation so well and so faithfully for so many years."

Depending on "Mr. Sam's" stamina, one doctor said, he could hold out for several months, even longer. Another said "two or three weeks" seemed more likely.

A non-medical aide to Rayburn said following Thursday's exploratory surgery the end could come in several days.

An official hospital spokesman told newsmen "it is too early" to say that Rayburn's cancer is incurable.

"Is he going to die?" a reporter asked.

"It is too early to say that he is going to die," the spokesman said. He added that it also is too early to say that Rayburn would recover.

Asked if it was possible for Rayburn to recover, the spokesman replied in the affirmative.

He said Rayburn would be allowed to return to his home in Bonham if he wished to do so "and if we feel he is well enough to go," but "his condition would have to change before he could go back to Washington."

The lymph gland was removed from Rayburn's right groin during Thursday's surgery.

A hospital bulletin said "the biopsy revealed a metastatic malignancy," and "the most likely primary site of the malignancy is the pancreas."

This means, a doctor explained, that the malignancy has spread from its original site to other points in Rayburn's body.

Rayburn had not been told late Thursday how serious his condition is. He was under heavy sedation to relieve extreme pain but talked briefly with members of his family who remained nearby during the night.

Baylor Hospital, which Rayburn entered last Monday for a series of tests, set up an emergency around-the-clock press room and planned to issue up to four medical bulletins daily.

When Rayburn laid down his gavel late in August and left Washington before Congress adjourned, he was suffering from what he said doctors had diagnosed as lumbago. He continued to lose weight while at his Bonham farm and finally yielded to persuasions of friends and doctors that he enter a hospital for a check-up.

Before his departure from the House chamber, over which he had presided more than twice as long as any predecessor, Rayburn designated Majority Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts to substitute for him. The house unanimously elected McCormack speaker pro tem, a designation he will retain when Congress reconvenes Jan. 10 unless the House changes its mind or Rayburn returns.

Liquor Fine Hiked in Circuit Court

Prosecuting Attorney Royce Weisenberger called attention to an error in yesterday's Star in the case of Willie Evans who was fined $250 and cost instead of $50 as reported.

He had been fined $100 in municipal court on a charge of selling wine to a young Negro man and appealed. A jury found him guilty in Circuit Court.

The Prosecuting Attorney's office is convinced that such a jury verdict will do much to lesson liquor law violations in this community and encourages all citizens to report to officers all violations or suspects. The Prosecutor assured that all violators will be brought to trial.

Rayburn's Nephew Also in Hospital

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Tom Rayburn, a nephew of Sam Rayburn, is a patient at Baylor Hospital, the same hospital at which the speaker of the House is being treated for cancer.

His ailment and his condition were not disclosed.

Red Threats Seen as Part of Squeeze

By HANS BENEDICT

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — U. S. diplomats today interpreted Soviet threats to quit the International Atomic Energy Agency as part of a Kremlin scheme to paralyze the United Nations.

The American envoys said they felt this was made apparent by heavy-handed tactics of the Soviet delegates to the 76-nation meeting of the U. N. atoms-for-peace body which ends today.

They made specific reference to Soviet moves to impose a broken plan on the agency's policy-making board of governors and to block the election of Dr. Sigvard Eklund, Western-supported Swedish scientist, as the new IAEA director general.

Chief Soviet delegate Vasily Emelyanov, in a blunt-worded statement Thursday night, announced he would advise Moscow to give up IAEA membership "because East-West cooperation in the peaceful use of atomic power has become impossible."

Western reaction was one of shock and concern over the agency's future. The U. S. quickly proclaimed its readiness to continue cooperation with the Soviets in IAEA.

Soviet withdrawal from the agency would also probably lead to an exodus of the Soviet satellite nations, informed sources said.

The Soviets and their allies thus far have played an insignificant role in the agency's technical aid to underdeveloped countries compared to achievements of the United States and other Western powers. The Soviets are paying 14 per cent of the agency's budget while the United States foots nearly one-third of the bill.

Thus, observers say, a Soviet walkout would give African and Asian countries impressions that the Soviets were out to torpedo an organization from which underdeveloped nations have received generous treatment.

Fulbright Plans Poultry Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., has thrown his weight behind a poultry industry proposal to swap canned poultry products for government-owned surplus feed grains.

Fulbright asked Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to consider the proposal. He said there is a variety of canned poultry products which could be made available for use in the food-for-peace program.

"Poultry meat is the lowest cost protein meat available," Fulbright wrote Freeman Thursday. "In addition, the canned poultry, which would be used if the industry's proposal is accepted, could be stored indefinitely in all climates and would require no special handling or storage facilities."

He said the proposal should be considered because of depressed conditions in the poultry trade. Since the regular commercial channels would be used, he said, there would be no disruptive effects in the feed trade.

Syrians Are Glad to Be Rid of Nasser

By DAVID LANCAHIRE

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — About 70 per cent of Syria's people are glad to be out from the oppressive rule of President Nasser and his United Arab Republic, informed sources say.

The people were sick of the stiff import restrictions, crippling economic decrees, the secret police, terror and unheard-of income taxes imposed by Cairo.

The remainder of the population still stands by Nasser, these informants say. A small but vocal segment of Syria's 4½ million people, it consists of rabid Arab nationalists and Nasser-worshiping students.

Whether the revolutionary regime of Premier Mamoun Kuzbari can command the loyalty of the Nasser-hating majority is another question.

Composed of known rightists and professional men, the revolutionary cabinet may prove not revolutionary enough for some Syrians, possibly even for some segments of the army that installed it.

Despite the regime's neutral policy, 11 of Kuzbari's 12 ministers lean clearly to the West. Syrians are sensitive to accusations of imperialism or capitalism.

Kuzbari's cabinet faces troubles from Egypt, its partner in the U.A.R., until last week's military uprising dissolved those ties.

Nasser is expected to pour in dissent and work on Syrian feeling for Arab unity. Damascus once was the capital of Islam and those feelings may be even deeper in Syria than in the rest of the Arab world.

Nasser's powerful propaganda has lost some of its effectiveness in the last three years, however, and closer Syrian ties with neighboring Iraq and Jordan might be enough to offset it.

W. Germany Ready to Help Solve Crisis

By THE STAR STAFF

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany now stands ready to enlarge its "administrative and technical relations" with the Communist regime of East Germany to help solve the Berlin crisis, authoritative sources said today.

This could eventually mean negotiations between the two Germans on access rights to West Berlin.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has sounded out West German Ambassador Walter Grewe on the possibility of such negotiations, the informants said, and a decision on this point is pending.

Access rights between West Germany and West Berlin are one of the big issues in the Berlin crisis. The Soviet Union has promised to guarantee them provided agreements are entered into with the East German regime.

West Germany previously has balked at being a party to such agreements because it refuses to recognize East Germany officially.

The authoritative sources said this position would not have to be sacrificed if new contracts with the Communist regime are considered administrative and technical. "This country handles its large-scale trade with East Germany on such a basis."

He charged the election had been "railroaded by the Western majority in the agency."

Thursday night he announced that he would advise his government to withdraw from the 76-nation atoms-for-peace agency in protest against what he called "complete lack of international collaboration."

U.S. diplomats took the view that the Soviet threat to withdraw from the agency was part of the Kremlin scheme to paralyze the United Nations.

Shootings in Berlin Threat to Any Peace

BERLIN (AP) — The three Western Allies sharply protested today to the Soviets against two shooting incidents involving Communist East German police in Berlin's French sector.

British Commandant Sir Ithorn Delcombe called on his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solov'yev, to deliver the protest on behalf of all three Western commanders, an Allied spokesman announced.

Delcombe told Solov'yev that the incidents resulted from "dangerous and irresponsible action" by the East Berlin Communist police.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's personal representative in Berlin, this morning made an on the spot inspection of the dangerously tense sector—the Bernauerstrasse.

The street, divided by the Communist-built wall now cutting through Berlin, has been the scene of two shooting incidents in the last two days.

The State Department in Washington has called on Soviet authorities to avoid shooting incidents on the Berlin border.

Max Maron, the East German Communist interior minister, sent sharply worded protests to West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and the French commandant, Gen. Jean Lacomme over the shooting.

He said any more such incidents will be "a threat to peace."

Clay had discussed the explosive situation with Brandt before the mayor flew off on a three-day visit to New York.

Education Problem Is Walkouts

By G. K. MODENFIELD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Business is booming but half the customers walk out after sampling the merchandise.

That's one of the chief problems nagging higher education today.

Every year the tide of college-bound students runs stronger, and enrollments rise by leaps and bounds.

But for every two students who start college, one will drop out before graduation.

Why? That's a question which has plagued college officials for years and it is plaguing them here at the annual meeting of the American Council on Education. "We have been writing and talking about this for 40 years, and we still do not have the answer," Blanchard L. Riddick of Cornell University said Thursday.

"What we do know is that 50 per cent of those who start college don't finish."

"Less than one-third of the dropouts can be classed as academic failures. The others leave because they are unhappy, because they run out of money, because they get married, or because they are thinking of getting married."

"What we really need is better counseling and more exciting teaching, particularly at the freshman level."

Crashes to Freedom
BERLIN (AP) — A young East Berliner today crashed a heavy truck through the concrete border wall in a daring escape to West Berlin.

Police said the 24-year-old man broke through near the heavily guarded East Berlin checkpoint at Heinrich Heine Strasse, on the American sector border.

The Red guards opened fire with automatic weapons but missed the driver.

Now A New World of Worth from Chevrolet

New Impala 4-Door Sedan

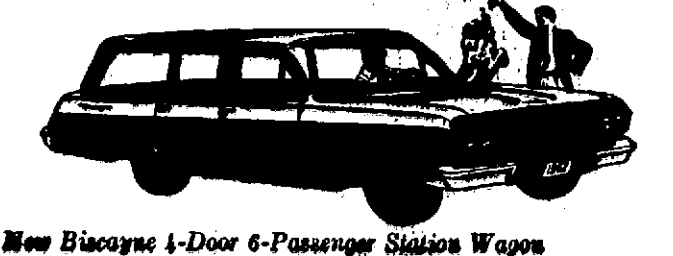

Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride

'62 CHEVROLET

Think of just about everything you ever wanted in a car—and darned if this one doesn't have it! A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. New choice of V8 shakedown. Beauty that stays beautiful—right down to new rust-resisting front fender underskirts.

This one may have you asking, "How did Chevrolet do it?" There's a new V8 choice ranging all the way from a standard 283-cubic-inch sizzler to two 409-cubic-inch powerhouses. And there's that '62 Jet-smooth ride with a supple Full Coil spring at each wheel and well over 700 body and chassis sound insulators and cushioners.

There are longer lived mufflers for all engines. A Grand Canyon of a trunk. Magic-Mirror finish. And, well, we could write a book about it all. Matter of fact, your Chevrolet dealer's got it all down on paper. Get a fill-in from him now.

Mindy McElroy Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McElroy entertained 22 guests at a Hawaiian Luau on Friday, Sept. 29 at the Hope Country Club in honor of their daughter, Mindy, on her 10th birthday.

The guests, wearing Muu Muu grass skirts and shorts for the occasion were greeted at the door by the hostess who placed a lei around each girl's neck and pinned a tropical flower in her hair. Pictures were taken and the girls enjoyed a buffet supper, seated in a circle around a big green cloth which was spread on the floor, Luau style.

A color scheme of pink, green and yellow was carried out in the decorations. The dining table was centered with a large white cake decorated with little grass huts, surrounded by tropical flowers in a sea of shredded yellow and green coconut. Two large candles burned at each side of the cake and on a table set aside for gifts was a Hawaiian doll.

Games were played with prizes being won by Janie Searmans and Joyce Callier. Martha Jane Mosley won the Hula Dance prize. Mrs. McElroy was assisted in serving by Mrs. Phyllis Herring, Mrs. Charles Butler and Mrs. Arch Wylio.

Triple 4-H Club Names Officers

The Triple 4-H Club met at the Palmos School Oct. 2 with 19 members, two leaders and three visitors present. The 4-H Pledge was led by Freida Middlebrooks and the U.S. Pledge by Cathy Camp.

Reports on past activities were given by Pat Smith, who told about Fun Night and the 4-H float, and by Frances Middlebrooks, who described the 4-H Club booth at the fair.

New officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, R. L. Tompkins; vice president, Carol Shepard; secretary, Carolyn Rogers; reporter, Jenny Waters; song leader, Regina Smith. Adult sponsor of the group is Mrs. Arnold Middlebrooks, girls project leader is Mrs. Farrell Rider and boys project leader is Howard Buffington.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 6.

Tuesday Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Lloyd Spencer entertained her Tuesday Bridge Club Oct. 3 and used cape jasmynes to enhance her home. The club guests Mrs. Harry Hawthorne, was also high score winner. Mrs. R. L. Broach was second. Assorted snacks were served.

District Nurses Meet

The Prescott District of the Arkansas State Nurses Assn. met Oct. 3 in the Hempstead County Memorial Hospital with 10 members present and seven guests.

After a business meeting, Dr. H. H. Holt of Nashville spoke to the group on "Vascular Surgery." It was decided that Mrs. Hazel Underwood, president of the local organization, would go to Little Rock Oct. 18-20 as a delegate to the state nurses convention. Cookies, cake and coffee were served for refreshments.

Rebekah Lodge Meets

Former members of the Rebekah Lodge met Wednesday, Oct. 4 in the home of Mrs. Mary Yocom for the purpose of organizing a Friendship Club. Mrs. Yocom was elected president of the new club; Mrs. Minnie West, vice president; Mrs. Dallas Brashier, secretary and Mrs. A. C. Kirby, reporter and song director.

The hostess served ice cream meeting. The group decided to meet the second Thursday of each month. On Nov. 9 the meeting will be in the home of Mrs. A. C. Kirby.

Svengali Husband Has Wife Jumping

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: The way my husband spies on me you'd think I was a "femme fatale" out to raise hell instead of being a plain, everyday housewife trying to raise a family.

He's got me so nervous I jump at sight of my own shadow. He calls it love, I call it sheer lunacy.

I have three children by a former marriage; one in service, another married and a third, a girl 14, at home.

This Svengali and I have been the Ark-TCU game in Little Rock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nix of Dallas, spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Nix and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Guerin.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Nix included Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Nix and two sons of Weimar, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Montgomery left Thursday for a visit with their son and wife, Maj. and Mrs. Earl Montgomery in Hampton Va.

married two and a half years. His insane jealousy forced my boy into the Service. Now, he can't even stand my daughter putting her arms around me. He'll pretend to go to work then hide in the house all day, spying on where I go and with whom. If I protest, he pouts. Claiming I don't love him as much as he loves me.

The sad truth is I love him so much it hurts. I'm completely under his spell. How can I convince him of this and get him to stop his spying? —Nervous Wreck.

Dear Nervous Wreck: You are two ultra-sensitive people. Added to this your husband's imagination works overtime and, as a consequence, he conjures up fantastic situations out of normal happenings. Poor tortured soul! Unsure of himself, unsure of everything, a clinging vine with nothing to cling to, or so he thinks.

No wonder you've become an obsession. Doing anything to excess indicates a hidden psychological problem: in your husband's case, a subconscious, frenzied effort to prevent that which he fears most—your flight to freedom.

Show him the patience and understanding you would a sick child. Constantly reassure him of your love by deeds, as well as words. Prepare his favorite dishes, buy him thoughtful little gifts. In turn, encourage him to do things for you. Make him feel needed. Does he like his job? If not, see that he switches to whatever he enjoys working at most—even if it means less pay. This will give him something to concentrate on—beside you, and in the doing, restore his balance!

Dear Helen: How can I gracefully be counted out of a double wedding? I am 18 and engaged to the most wonderful boy in the world. We plan on marrying the first of next year. His only sister, who is also engaged, has scheduled her wedding for the same day and now suggests we make it a double event.

My fiancé, stationed at an Air Base, is even less enthusiastic than I over the prospect, although his parents think it very sensible. How can I tell them all that we don't? The last thing I want to cause is friction. Help!—Steady Reader.

Dear Steady Reader: Get off to an honest, sincere start with your future in-laws. Tell them frankly that, as much as you both appreciate the complement of sharing in the double wedding, it is not what you want in your heart-of-hearts.

Explain that since you hope this will be your one and only marriage you want this to be the wedding of your dreams—a simple one in which just the two of you take part. If your future sister-in-law is as nice as your fiancé, she'll understand and appreciate you all the more for speaking up.

Arkansas Gazette Sued for Libel

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Gazette Publishing Co. was named defendant in a $250,000 libel suit filed Wednesday by Prairie County Deputy Sheriff R. L. Forrester. Monday. The jury recessed Wednesday after hearing four witnesses. Six witnesses testified Tuesday. There was no indication of whether all to testified in connection with the election investigation.

Former state Sen. Jerry Screven of Hazen and his wife previously filed libel suits totaling $300,000 in connection with the same story.

Condemnation Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A federal suit to condemn 15.3 acres in Pulaski County for a bank stabilization job on the Arkansas River was filed Wednesday in federal District Court. The government offered $300 for the acreage owned by Charlie Jackson of Little Rock and O. H. Gibbs of England.

62 Convicts Are Granted Paroles

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Three prisoners serving terms for second degree murder were among the 62 convicts granted paroles by the state Pardon and Paroles Board Wednesday.

The three were Joe DeBord, Bennie Lee Edwards and Wesley Harvey.

DeBord was sentenced to six years from Randolph County in 1959; Edwards, a Negro, was convicted in Pope County in 1956 and sentenced to 15 years; and Harvey drew a 10-year term from Garland County in 1953.

Arkansas Held

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) - Walter McWilliams, 30, a former Monticello, Ark., construction worker, is being held in county jail here in lieu of $5,000 bond on charges of fleeing Arkansas to avoid prosecution for burglary. The FBI reported that McWilliams is charged in Drew County, Ark., with several burglaries.

Hand in Hand Opens at the Saenger

"Hand in Hand" opens at the Saenger Theater Friday for a two-day run. The theme of the picture concerns how childhood innocence makes adult prejudice in religion seem shamefully ridiculous in many incidences.

Just as is the parables of Christ this story is so simple a child can grasp it, but only an adult can understand its deeper meaning. Filmed in England, the stars of "Hand in Hand" are Phillip Needs and Loretta Parry, an eight year old boom companions who are as engaging and fascinating as children can be.

One is a Catholic and one a Jew, and their reactions to their religious differences are wonderful. At one point they can't decide which burial service to give their pet mouse. They attend each other's church, run away to see the Queen in London, and start on an adventurous trip to Africa.

Adult leaders with scouts, Sunday Schools, and other youth activities in Hope viewed this movie at a preview showing not long ago. Some of the comments were: "I sincerely enjoyed this show, and I think that more people should be more humble in their beliefs." (Mrs. Rufus Herndon Jr.)

"A good way for us all to live - 'Hand in Hand'." (Mrs. Jim James)

"There is so much prejudice in the world today anything that shows it up for what it is, is very worthwhile." (Rev. Rufus Sorells)

"Very good if we could be like little children." (Mrs. J. B. Martin)

"I wish we had the faith of little children, we would all get through life better." (Mrs. Lyle McMahan)

Official Oath Within 10 Days

LITTLE ROCK - An elected city official must take his oath of office within 10 days or risk losing his position.

Atty. Gen. Frank Holt made this ruling today in an opinion to Newport Mayor Wallace Creswell. The 10-day period starts when the official is notified of his election.

Holt said.

Creswell wrote Holt that the Newport City Council had named an alderman to replace an elected candidate who failed to appear to take the oath.

The attorney general said the man named by the council is the official officeholder.

Mrs. King Dies

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) - Mrs. Bertha Hale King, 85, widow of a one-time aide to the late Sen. George Norris of Nebraska, died in a hospital here Tuesday.

Mrs. King's husband, Judson King, was a consultant to the Rural Electrification Administration as well as an aide to Norris. Mrs. King made her home here with a sister, Mrs. Mabel H. Barnes, after her husband's death in 1957. Other survivors include another sister, Mrs. George Beebe of Fort Smith. Funeral will be here Friday.

SEVEN LIES SOUTH

THE STORY: Mike Beecher, an American living in Spain, has a disagreeable brush with a Frenchman named Maurice at a party given by Don Willie, an ex-Nazi. Beecher is escorting an American girl Laura Meadows to the party.

Chapter V

"What did he say to you?" Don Willie asked anxiously.

"Let's skip it," Beecher said.

"But I must know. I must know how he insulted you. What did he say? Tell me, please."

Beecher shrugged. "Just that Americans are all fat, lazy warmongers. That was the general idea."

Don Willie took out a large handkerchief and wiped his damp forehead. "I am relieved it was nothing personal. People who say such things are fools. A country is many different ideas, many different persons. I met Maurice in the village, and asked him to my party because I do not like to make him feel left out. He was nice then, very quiet and sober. Now he makes this fight, insults my friends. It is my fault."

"Well, maybe I wasn't very tactful with him," Beecher said. Don Willie put his hand on Beecher's shoulder and looked at him with smiling approval. "Why should you be tactful? You are a man! Someone insults your pretty lady, where is the need for tact?"

Don Willie patted Beecher's arm. "Yes, you are a man," he said, but he was no longer smiling, and there was an expression of thoughtful appraisal on his round, flushed face. "I too am a man, I think," he said. "I make up my mind quick. There is a lucky thing about this party tonight. Lucky for me and—who knows? Lucky, too, for you, Mike Beecher." He then dropped his hands to his sides and turned to Laura. "Would you excuse us a little minute, my dear? There is something I wish to talk to Mike about."

"Why, yes, of course," Laura said. "I'll amuse myself. Run along."

Laura sat on the wall, beyond the swimming pool, her skirt spread over her knees, and her legs crossed at the ankles. Beecher stood beside her with a hand resting against the small of her back. There was nothing behind her but the vast silver sea and a hundred-foot drop straight down to the beach.

"Come on now," she said. "Tell me about Don Willie. You have been looking mysterious long enough."

"Well, he offered me a job, that's all."

She looked puzzled. "Do you want a job?"

"To put it more accurately, I need one."

"Well, aren't you excited then?"

"I don't know if I want or need this particular job," he looked at her with a smile. "There's one inducement, though. The job's in Morocco. And Don Willie wants me to go down with him Monday on the 11 p. m. flight."

She seemed confused for an instant. "But that's when I'm going. Then she grinned. "Mike, how exciting. Are you going with him? What kind of a job is it?"

"Don Willie's got brokerage offices in Rabat and Casablanca. They sell desert development insurance. Oil, water, ores, that sort of thing. Very high yield; but all light he had only an impression of very shapely, with the Moroccan securities commission keeping an eye on things. I speak Spanish, for one thing. Most Moroccans do, you know. Secondly, I'm an American. Customers will equate Amer-

Bobcats Looking for First Victory Tonight

By VINCE FOSTER
Hope Star Sports Writer

Tonight the Hope Bobcats play host to a strong eleven from Crossett in a 4A AHSU. Kickoff time is 8 p.m. in Hammond Stadium and this game promises to be as good or better than the first home game of the season between the Bobcats and Smackover, who edged out the Cats 14-12 in that one.

This Hope-Crossett series started in 1954 with a 0-0 tie and it has been close every year since. Last year was the first time the Eagles had beaten the Bobcats, who hold a lead in the series with four wins, one loss, and two ties. Hope also leads in scoring 66-21. Last year the Eagles finished 4th in the district compared with the Bobcats who were left in the 5th spot. The Eagles were rated very highly in the pre-season predictions, but they haven't been able to live up to expectations.

Coach Harry Denson of Crossett has 11 returning lettermen including three speedsters from his winning track team of last spring. These are FB Ronnie Bailey, HB Bruce Switzer and HB Robert Stone, who has proved to be the big gun for the Eagles. Vernon Draper and Walter White are the only two returning veterans. Crossett now holds a 1-2-1 record with one district win over Magnolia 6-0. They were dropped by Monticello 14-12 and by Malvern 26-13, with a 0-0 tie at Texarkana. However, you look at it, the Eagles will be tough with their speed.

The Bobcats appear to be in better shape after last week's close one with Malvern. Perhaps after the Eagles see HB David Porterfield shake loose as he did against Malvern, they'll know what speed is. Porterfield is fast and the fact that the Cats will be going to the air mere tonight may be the deciding factors in this contest.

Come out tonight for top football and boost the Bobcats.

Shoats Show Promise in 26-0 Victory

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas freshmen crop put on a stunning display of running and were quarterback Garland Ridenour of Fort Smith and fullback Gary Shinnall of Pine Bluff. They forecast great things to come for the Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Shoats' offensive standouts were quarterback Garland Ridenour of Fort Smith and fullback Gary Shinnall of Pine Bluff. It would be impossible to pick a defensive standout from the forward wall that held North Texas to 19 yards rushing.

Ridenour ran 33 yards for one touchdown, kicked two extra points and passed 29 yards to Shinnall to set up another score. Shinnall scored that touchdown on a two-yard lunge.

Bullback Bob Reynolds, another Fort Smith product, dashed 66 yards with the opening kickoff for a touchdown. Late in the first quarter, fullback Ronnie Carter of Fordyce returned a punt 48 yards for a touchdown.

It was 13-0 at halftime and Ridenour and his mates weren't satisfied. Ridenour went 33 yards around end in the third quarter, then passed 29 yards to Shinnall down to the North Texas 16. It took six plays to get it over, and quarterback Harold Rhoden of Rogers converted.

North Texas threw 34 passes but got only 52 yards in the air. The Texans twice moved within range, and both times 22-yard field goals failed.

A crowd of 3,500 watched the annual benefit game for the Texarkana Temple Memorial Home for Crippled Children.

Series Flares Anew Sat. at Cincinnati

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The World Series flares anew Saturday after a change of scenery and certainly a chance of prospects for the lightly-regarded Cincinnati Reds in their postseason championship duel with the New York Yankees.

The Reds, seemingly well outclassed in losing Wednesday's opener, came back to life in New York Thursday with a 6-2 decision that proved the Yankees mighty human after all.

But while the Yankees were playing Alphonse and Gaston with themselves as the two-game New York phase of the series concluded, the Reds uncorked the same type of performance that convinced the experts while they were pennant.

Strapping Joey Jay was the pitcher against the Yanks his regular season 21-10 record stamped him to be. But additionally, Cincinnati's cast of unknowns produced a couple of sidishow whizzes in Venezuelan second baseman Elio Chacon and reserve catcher John Edwards.

When the series third game is played at Crosley Field Saturday (1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time), the Yankees will find themselves hammered down to 2 to 1 favorites from a 4½-1 choice prior to the loose frolic Thursday before 63,083 in Yankee Stadium.

As for the third game—in which Cincinnati's knuckleballer, Bob Purkey (16-12) faces New York's Bill Stafford (14-9)—the Yankees are a 7-5 pick to triumph in the cozy confines of Crosley Park.

The forecast for Saturday is fair and pleasant. In the three games that now must be played in Cincinnati in the best-of-7 series, the Yankees are expected to be bolstered by return of ailing Mickey Mantle, who sat out—very gingerly—the two New York games because of an infected hip.

Certainly Mantle's long-ball hitting is needed to offset a terrific swoon thus far by Roger Maris, the man who set an all-time season home run record with 61.

Maris, still hitless in seven series official at-bats, has struck out three times, twice being whiffed Thursday by the 6-4, 225-pound Jay. Roger hasn't hit a ball out of the infield in the series.

Although he allowed only four hits, Jay kept walking himself into and pitching himself out of trouble, no small thanks to the 5-9, 163-pound Chacon from Caracas, Venezuela.

Chacon, substituting for regular Don Blasingame, who had a jammed finger, started two crackling double plays, a department trouble, no small thanks to the in which Cincinnati supposedly is hurting.

Iowa, Calif. Game Will Be Televised

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Navy's football team knows it is in for a tough night when it takes on Miami's Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl tonight. But far be it from the hosts to underestimate their opponents.

There is a mutual respect on both sides, Navy because of the passing and running of quarterback George Mira and the pass catching of end Bill Miller, and Miami because of Navy's all-around good condition, hustle and offensive potential.

Mira, whose action may be limited by rib bruises suffered in the victory over Kentucky two weeks ago, ranks fourth nationally in total offense with 394 yards, 305 of those through passing. Miller has caught 12 for 172 yards and is a pillar on defense.

Navy, loser in its opener 20-10 to Penn State which Miami leveled 23-0 last week, showed good offensive power in beating William & Mary 44-6, with junior quarterback Ron Klemick leading the way.

Penn State tries to regain its touch at Boston against winless (0-2) Boston University while Tulane, which has given only a pair of field goals and touchdowns in two losing games, meets Florida, which has a victory and a tie.

There is full-scale action Saturday, with all the top teams except 10th ranked Baylor in action, a bevy of conference games. Iowa, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll, journeys to Los Angeles to meet the University of Southern California, which has a victory and a tie.

There are some other interesting games involving members of the top ten. Fifth ranked Texas (2-0) plays pass-minded Washington State; Michigan State (No. 6) takes on surprising Stanford (2-0); UCLA travels to meet eighth-ranked Ohio State and Michigan, ranked ninth, is at home to Army (2-0).

Second-ranked Mississippi tackles a tough little customer in Florida State as it goes for its 18th straight game without a loss. Georgia Tech (No. 3) the surprise so far of the 1961 season, has an SEC game against defense-minded Louisiana State while fourth rated Alabama (2-0) has an SEC battle against Vanderbilt, also (2-0). Both are at night.

The other top ten team, seventh-ranked Syracuse, has its most serious test of the year at Maryland.

Jonesboro Back Leads Scorers

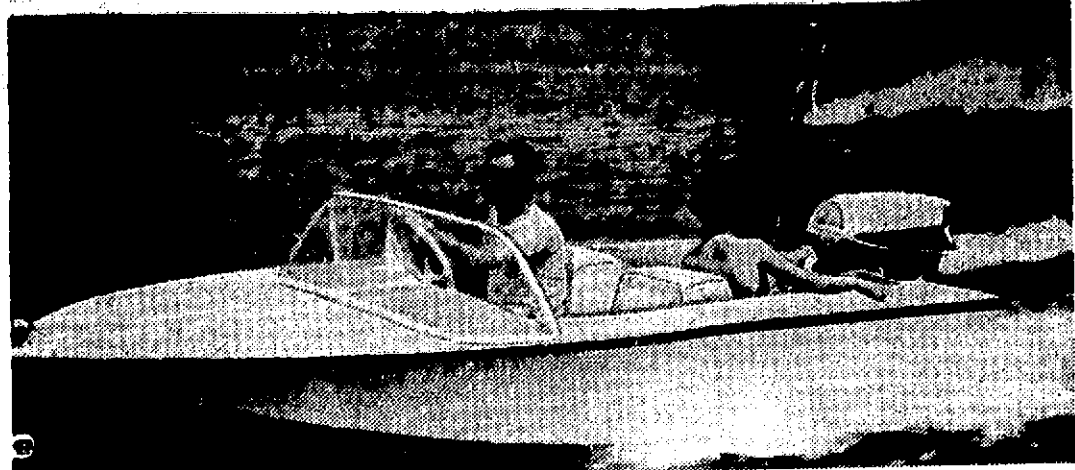

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jonesboro fullback Fred Hogan leads Arkansas schoolboy football players in scoring with 14 touchdowns in five games for 84 points. He got three touchdowns in last week's victory over Newport.

Another fullback, Barry Hughes of Blytheville, has five touchdowns and nine extra points in four games for 39 points—enough to lead the Big Nine Conference.

Eddie Pruitt of Searcy leads Class A with 60 points and Mackie Chambliss of Bearden leads Class B with 68. Mickey Williams of Decatur leads the 6-man field with 56 points.

Chacon, substituting for regular Don Blasingame, who had a jammed finger, started two crackling double plays, a department trouble, no small thanks to the in which Cincinnati supposedly is hurting.

Eudora to Open a New Factory

EUDORA, Ark. (AP) — The time-honored agricultural economy of this Mississippi Delta cotton town makes way for industry Jan. 1 when Eudora opens its first manufacturing plant.

The Eudora Manufacturing Co.'s garment factory, a subsidiary of a New York firm which has two other such factories elsewhere, will employ from 100 to 200 in making fatigue uniforms for the Air Force.

Landing the factory ended six years of search for a manufacturing payroll. The town raised $50,000 in 1955 in hopes of financing an industry, but nothing came its way. In 1960, the Eudora Industrial Development Corp., headed by J. W. Lloyd, got a "yes" from the garment firm.

A $75,000 bond issue was approved to pay for construction of the plant. And $15,000 was raised to pay for training workers. Eighty-five per cent of the work force will be women.

Newport Port to Close Water System

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — The Newport Municipal Airport must shut down its water system by Nov. 30, by order of the Federal Aviation Agency.

The FAA cited a $5,000 annual revenue loss by the Airport Commission. Several industrial plants and about 100 house holders who receive the water pay for it, the householders in a flat monthly charge and the industries through rent.

There has been no decision on how water will be supplied after the shutdown.

Airliner Lands 34 Safely

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Trouble in the hydraulic system of an airliner caused a flurry of excitement but the Eastern Air Lines DC7 plane landed safely Wednesday.

The piston-engine plane, en route from Miami to Detroit with 34 aboard landed with the gear locked in a down position. An airline spokesman said there was no emergency.

Ready to Play, Says Broyle of Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — "We're ready to play."

With those words Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles signed off his last regular practice session before the Southwest Conference opener with Texas Christian.

Broyles takes his Hogs by bus to Hot Springs today, where they'll limber up in the high school stadium, then spend the night at drive to Little Rock just before game time Saturday.

It starts at 8 and you'd better come early. About 40,000 extra cars are expected in the capital city, what with the game and the windup of the Livestock Exposition.

A sellout crowd of 41,000 is forecast for the Hog-TCU battle. Both teams are in good physical shape. Most notable returnee from the injured list is Arkansas alternate quarterback Billy Moore. A knee injury kept him out of the 16-0 loss to Ole Miss and the 6-6 victory over Tulsa.

Broyles said after Thursday's workout that the Hogs showed more snap than they had before their first two games. That won't keep them from being the underdog against the Frogs, who beat Kansas 17-16 and tied Ohio State 7-7.

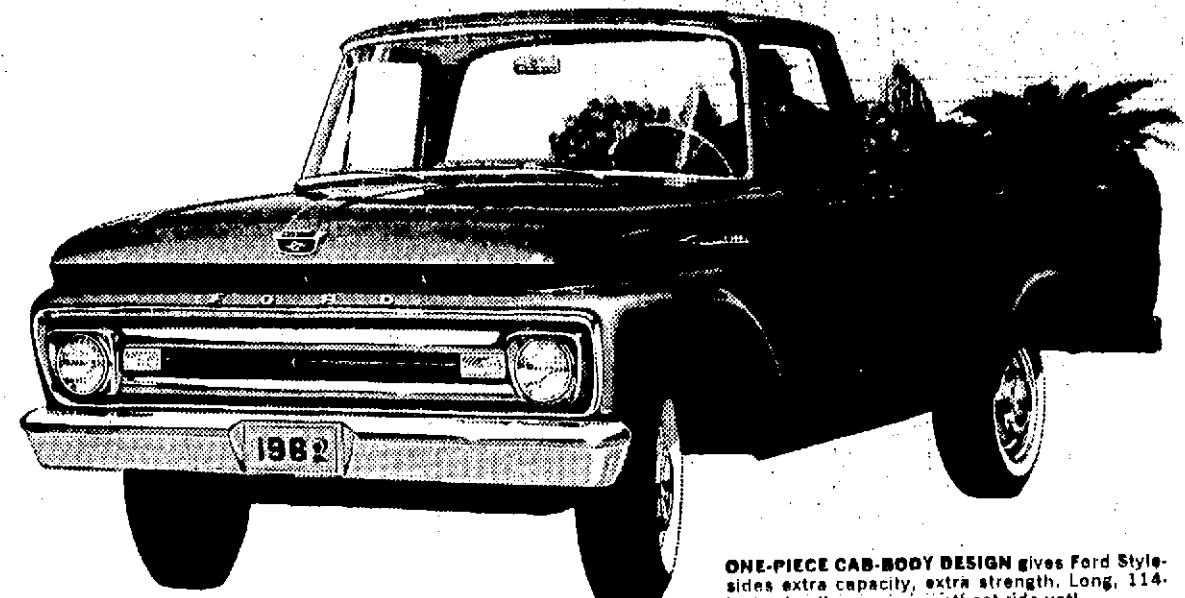

Broyles noted that TCU is aiming for halfback Lance Alworth and said his club is going to be looking just as hard at Frog quarterback Sonny Gibbs, a 230-pounder who leads the Southwest Conference in total offense and is second in passing.

Realizing that a kick might mean a victory or a loss, Broyles put Jim Grizzle and Mickey Cissell to booting Thursday. Grizzle kicked 3 of 3 extra points, 3 of 4 field goals from the 20, and 3 of 4 from the 25.

Cissell kicked 8 of 9 extra points, 5 of 5 field goals from the 20 and 3 of 3 from the 25.
